NOTES FOR GUIDANCE

It is very important to fill this form clearly in block capitals. All questions should be answered fully and correctly.

Visitors/Tourists should present letters of invitation from Nigeria or travelers' cheque to be cashed in Nigeria as evidence of means of sustenance. They should also be in possession of return air tickets, while persons applying for transit visas are required to show onward tickets and visas to their destinations.

Persons taking up employment in Nigeria, and their spouses are to fill this form in duplicate. They are also required to submit their letters of employment, evidence of expatriate quota approvals, originals and two copies of each of all their credentials. For temporary work visas, prior approval from the Comptroller-General of Immigration Services in Nigeria is required.

All applicants should pay appropriate non-refundable visa fees into Leumi Bank account No. 221983/61 and attaché bank payment receipts to their applications before submitting at the visa counter.
